CORPORATE LESSONS & PACKAGES

Corporate lessons are a great way to motivate your key staff or reward important clients by improving their golf game. Our PGA Head Professional, Bill Ramsey, and his staff have combined more than 40 years' experience conducting lessons for groups of 4-500 students. The instructors bring a rare combination of golf skills, unique training methods, and interactive skills that will leave your group talking about their outing for weeks to come. Our corporate packages are available 7 days a week.

Following are examples of some of our more popular packages, but no two outings are ever exactly the same. Call Carolyn Loughridge at 303-790-0202 to discuss your ideas, and customize an outing for your specific needs.

Exhibition and Clinic: Head professional Bill Ramsey or his staff can provide your group with an exhibition and/or clinic in any area of the game you choose. Possible topics include: Mechanics, Short Game, Putting, Course Management, Decision Making, or Practice & Preparation. No minimum, no maximum.

Cost: Starting at $200.00 per hour. (additional fee for multiple instructors)

Playing Lesson: Head Professional Bill Ramsey or his staff plays several holes – depending on group size, with each group, talking about course management with each individual, discussing strategies, and answering questions throughout the round. Includes 18 holes of golf, cart, warm-up bucket, boxed lunch, and one drink ticket. Minimum 4 students for this class, maximum 16 students.

Cost: $160.00 each for class of 4 students.

$140.00 each for class of 9-16 students.

Lone Tree Staff: The Lone Tree staff consists of several PGA and LPGA members. The staff has over 40 years combined experience in the golf industry. Each staff member has given thousands of individuals and group lessons and has a professional approach, which will allow your players to thoroughly enjoy the experience.
